

COMMUNITY HISTORY PROJECT

Corn Husk Doll Making Workshop

The fall harvest gives us new materials for traditional handicrafts. Our Docents will show you how to make your own Corn Husk Doll, and provide all the necessary materials.

With a little help, you or your child can make one of these delightful works of art, just as the tollkeepers' families might have done.

This workshop is suitable for adults or for accompanied children 8 or older.

A tour of the museum is included in the workshop price. All proceeds support the Community History Project and the Tollkeeper's Cottage Museum.

Catherine Watts, a skilled dollmaker and teacher, leads the workshop.
